

GRANTS AND ASSISTANCE TOWARDS COACH EDUCATION COSTS

Some Local Authority Sports Councils operate a coaching grant scheme; if your club is a member of the Local Sports Council then this is worth checking.

triathlonscotland has received some financial support from Sportscotland towards Coach Education costs. This money is specifically for the support and development of club coaching and preference will be given to new clubs, small clubs (less than 20 members), junior clubs and clubs that currently have no coaches.

Also in line with our equity policy and knowledge of current coaches profile (especially gender disproportionality) triathlonscotland will prioritise support for female applicants.

Potential grants of up to 100% of the course fee are available, providing that efforts have been made to secure all other sources of funding first.

If a grant is made then the coach will be expected to complete the coach education course (including any supplementary paperwork).

During the 12 months after the course the coach agrees to deliver 25 hours of coaching either with their club, through the Performance Programme or some other method agreed beforehand with the triathlonscotland Development Manager.

Failure by the coach to fulfil this commitment will result in the coach having to repay part, or the entire grant awarded.
