

Triathlon Scotland Anti-Doping Annual Report 2022-23

British Triathlon Clean Sport Education Strategy and Implementation Plan

- British Triathlon submitted their British Triathlon Federation (British Triathlon) and Home Nation Anti-Doping Education Strategy 2021-2024 to UKAD in Oct 2021. Triathlon Scotland signed up to this strategy 25 October 2021.
- The Triathlon Scotland Education Strategy was signed off on 10 January 2020 and is currently being delivered across the Pathway and is aligned to the British Triathlon Strategy.

Triathlon Scotland Education Strategy

- Review process started to align with changes to UKAD resources and Triathlon Scotland Pathway structure. New strategy to be in place for 30 August 2023.

Delivery of education 2022-2023

- All staff and athletes selected for Team Scotland for Commonwealth Games 2022 completed the online "Clean Games" module.
- 100% ME session delivered to Academy/ Academy Affiliate / Parents March 2022.
- Clean Sport attended British Super Series Aquathlon, Lochgelly, June 22 to promote Clean Sport to Pathway from 12-19 year olds, drop in at their Gazebo.
- Next Generation Squad athletes accessing online nutritional modules focusing on food first through Scottish Institute of Sport.

Triathlon Scotland compliance with Assurance Framework 2022-23

- 2023-2024 Information Gathering Survey for Testing '@Green' submitted by 16 December 2022.
- 2021-22 'Green', full compliance which was achieved 23 March 2022.
- Anti-doping paper presented to Triathlon Scotland Board 2 February 2023.
- All Pathway Squad agreements updated to include the updated wording re Clean Sport as required by UKAD.
- Updated prohibited list changes circulated.
 - Emailed direct to Next Generation and Commonwealth Games squad athletes.
 - Posted on social media.
 - Included in members' newsletters.
- Supported Clean Sport week through social media posts, and irregular clean sport posts throughout the year.
- Bound by Anti-Doping regulations and data sharing for the purpose of UK Anti-Doping investigations added to Triathlon Scotland membership Terms & Conditions